Describe the incident. 500 word limit. Please number your paragraphs

I called the Department of the Premier and Cabinet and I think I spoke to a Karen regarding the structure of the department, and whether how it relates to the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development, as they both share the same website address – (<https://www.wa.gov.au>). She wasn't very helpful and couldn't answer my questions regarding the same website address for Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development being the same as the Department of the Premier and Cabinet (used to be known as just the Department of Premier and Cabinet – no "the"). It's confusing for the public when Government departments share a website address. At the end of the conversation, I wanted to re-confirm her name, and she said, "I'm not giving you my name" and hung up on me.
